NEW CALF BORN AT OLD COWTOWN MUSEUM

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(Sedgwick County, Kansas) - Favor, Cowtown's six-year-old shorthorn cow, gave birth to her fourth calf on Thursday, June 7. Mother and baby are doing fine and are accepting visitors at the 1880s DeVore Farm on Museum grounds.

While at the Museum, visitors are invited to help name the newest member of Cowtown's livestock family. Entries are to be submitted at the Museum's Admission Gate/Gift Store through July 27. The winning and contestant will be announced on Saturday, July 28, during Ag Days/Down on the Farm weekend. The winner will get an Old Cowtown Museum "goodie bag" and will be invited to preside over the official naming ceremony.

Old Cowtown Museum recreates life in an 1870s Kansas cattle town. Cowtown is open Monday through Saturday, 10am-5pm, and on Sundays, 12 noon-5pm. From Memorial Day through Labor Day, Thursday hours are 10am-8pm. The Museum is located at 1871 Sim Park Drive in Wichita's Museums on the River District.
